

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY POLICY

Four Star Apartments protect your information in order to safeguard each individual in the best possible manner. This is enshrined in the Government's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

When we process your personal data, we ensure - in accordance with the Public Records Act - that your information is never used for a longer period than required, unless otherwise specified for other law enforcement purposes.

In case a government body chooses to process your personal data, you may request for further information found on the official website here.
